ABOUT US

Graines de Curieux is a brand of food product issued from organic and healthy growing managed by Land, Farm & Men.

The overall management guarantees the high quality of our products.

Our farmers cultivate on Belgian soil according to the guidelines set by Graines de Curieux. We oversee the entire transformation process right up to marketing, which ensures total traceability.

You can find all our products in organic and local shops, small grocery shops or in the farms of our region, and also on the menu of several restaurants.
